Call for radical ideas to end A1307 deaths

BY Rachel Extance and Laura Jean Morris

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A FATHER and his two teenage sons were killed in an horrific head-on smash on the A1307 on Saturday.

Their deaths, which took the total number of fatalities on the road this year to six, have led to an MP calling for an urgent summit with highway bosses, councillors and campaigners.

David Bocking, 43, from Halstead, and sons, Daniel, 14, and Stephen, 13, from Potton, Bedfordshire, were pronounced dead at the scene.

They had been travelling in a red Peugeot 806 people carrier along with an eight-year-old girl and a 39-year-old woman when the accident took place.

A further three people, travelling in a silver Volkswagen Golf, were also hurt in the collision.

Accident investigators say they are not entirely sure what happened, but believe it was a head-on smash after one car deviated into the path of the other at around 3pm, leaving the Peugeot in a ditch.

All of the five other people involved in the accident, who are yet to be named, were taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge after being released from the vehicles by fire crews.

The occupants of the Golf – a 50-year-old woman and 60-year-old man, who both sustained internal injuries, and a 13-year-old girl, who suffered a broken collarbone – were described as being in a "serious condition".

The nine-year-old girl and 39-year-old woman from the Peugeot were described as "critical".

The road was closed at the Balsham crossroads for around six hours following the accident, only reopening after 9.30pm on Saturday night.

The accident occurred on a stretch of the A1307 where it narrows from a dual carriageway to single carriageway between Linton and Horseheath.

Cambridgeshire County Council has made the road its top priority and on Monday new highways boss Cllr Matt Bradney announced a speed camera and fast-tracked plans for a 50mph speed limit on one stretch, warning signs and a driver education programme.

Jim Paice, MP for Cambridgeshire South East, said these were "useful steps forward" but something more "fundamental" needed to be done, including looking at whether the road needed more

"dualling, maybe bypassing bits, to perhaps creating a whole new road".

He said: "Frankly a speed camera doesn't address the fundamental problem of people driving badly. Speed is part of the issue, it is important, but it's not the whole issue."

"The county council have not, as far as I know, yet gone to the Government about the A1307 and said we need special money for this."

Impressive help for our appeal from print firm

A PRINTING firm got behind the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal this week by displaying one of our appeal posters in large billboards on its premises.

Ann and Gary Aken have run Specialised Print in Station Road, Haverhill, for the past five years and offer specialised services for various organisations, including 44 hospitals across the country.

They have been long-term supporters of St Nicholas Hospice and immediately backed our appeal to raise £40,000 so that services can be provided for patients in the Haverhill area in their own homes, rather than travelling to Bury St Edmunds.

The couple are also working with Haverhill-based professional photographer George Impey, who is producing a calendar of local scenes, with each page sponsored by a local company, to be sold in aid of our hospice appeal.

They hope to have the calendar on sale by November, and Geoff Carter will set up a stall outside his Suffolk Insurance premises in the High Street to sell copies at Haverhill's Late Night Shopping event in December.

Ann said: "We have lost both our parents. My mother had cancer, although she was not in a hospice.

"We have always supported cancer charities and, in particular, the hospice. We feel there is a very strong possibility that either one of us or someone close to us will need help from one.

"We have had friends in the hospice and the Hospice at Home Appeal is very important because most people would like to be at home with their families if they could. We just want to do anything we can to help."

■ We are urging other businesses, factories, shops and organisations to follow the lead of Specialised Print and display one of our posters, which can be collected from the Weekly News office in Queen Street, or the St Nicholas Hospice shop in the High Street.

Don't forget to let us know about your fund-raising events so that we can help publicise them to raise as much as possible for the appeal, by ringing (01440) 703891 or email editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

How can you help us hit the target?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal. Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause. A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

'Child centres there to help'

COUNCIL workers have been talking to Haverhill families to make sure parents know all about local facilities available for them and their children.

They handed out stickers and parents were told how they can access information on their local centre and what they can expect to find there.

Haverhill has the Cartwheels Children's Centre, at Greenfields Way, and the On Track service, at Strasbourg Square, to help children and their parents.

The campaign emphasised the many fun and free services on offer for families with children under the age of five and encouraged parents to drop in at their local children's centre to meet the staff and find out more.

Cllr Patricia O'Brien, portfolio holder for children and young people at Suffolk County Council, said: "By showing the benefits of children's centres, we hope to give parents the confidence to visit their local centre, and take advantage of the activities on offer. We aim to provide a one stop shop for families, somewhere they can access information on the wide range of services available to them. Most people don't realise that many of the services are free, so it's really important for families with children under five to contact their local centre to find out about the activities."

Most children's centres provide childcare, early education help, informal health and social support. Some offer baby massage, cookery courses, exercise classes, adult education courses, credit unions, DVD hire and much more.

Path protesters turn back digger

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

CONCERNED parents staged a sit-down protest in front of a digger to prevent a path being built which they fear will endanger their children and attract crime.

Residents of Ruffles Road and Mustards Gapp in Haverhill discovered builder Taylor Wimpey planned to start work on a steep and sloping piece of waste land, to remove the fence separating it from Ruffles Road and put in an S-shaped tarmac path.

The residents say the path is unnecessary and will affect their children's safety and their enjoyment of their homes.

At 8am on Monday morning, contractors arrived at the waste land to find residents' cars parked across the entrance, but managed to drive their digger around the protesters and on to the land.

Paula Glenister, Gail Course and Vini Cass set up garden chairs to prevent the digger starting work.

By the afternoon, the residents had won the first round in their battle as the digger was taken away.

They now plan to seek support from local councillors and their MP to see that it does not return.

Mrs Glenister said more than 50 residents had already signed a petition against the path and they were prepared to go on battling.

She said: "I stood in front of the digger to stop them going on there because we all feel so strongly about this. It is so unnecessary. There is no need for a path there."

"Our main concern is for the safety of our children. At the moment they can play safely in Ruffles Road, but if you take away the fence they will be able to get down to the main road."

"We have a really nice community up here. We don't get any burglaries or crime, but this will change all that."

A spokesman for Taylor Wimpey said: "The creation of the footpath is a condition of our planning approval and we have no option other than to install it."

"We understand the residents are concerned because the area has been used as an informal play space, but we are pleased to confirm that once the path has been constructed, the area will be landscaped and available as a play space once again."

"Given residents' concerns, we have asked our contractors to stop work for now, and we would be pleased to meet with residents to find the best way forward."

A spokesman for St Edmundsbury Borough Council said: "The footpath was included as part of the overall layout which was agreed with the developers, to improve pedestrian access to other parts of the town."

"However, Wimpey can ask the council for planning permission not to go ahead with building the path."

Three die in A1307 crash

"I would be very happy to go to the Government for more money to examine this road. The death toll is more than justification."

Representatives of Suffolk County Council, St Edmundsbury Borough Council and the Government Office for the East of England would also be invited to the summit as well as Richard Spring, MP for West Suffolk, who has written to Mark Lloyd, chief executive of Cambridgeshire County Council, demanding action.

He wrote: "I would like a full summary of what progress Cambridgeshire County Council is making to improve safety along the notorious stretch of road between Haverhill and Cambridge, as so many of my constituents are affected."

Cllr Bradney said this week: "I welcome the suggestion of a summit to look at ways of improving the A1307 and hope that Jim Paice will work with all of us to bring forward changes."

Meanwhile, there have been calls to immediately cut the speed limit along the A1307 to 50mph.

Campaign group Access 1307 want the speed limit between the A11 and Haverhill to be cut to 50mph now and says Linton and Abington should have 30mph limits.

Esther Cornell, from Access 1307, said: "We are very concerned that there are 10 different speed limits along the 10-mile road and believe this to be very confusing to drivers."

"We know that many of the deaths that have occurred on the A1307 are not speed related but some of them are."

"Over a year ago our MP Jim Paice surveyed residents' opinions along the entire road. More than three out of four people asked for the maximum speed limit along the entire road to be reduced to 50mph."

"The local people and road users should be listened too."

Anyone with information about Saturday's crash can contact the road policing unit on 0845 456 4564.

Young gardeners sow the seeds . . .

GREEN-FINGERED children are growing their own beans and tomatoes this summer at a new garden area created at the Cartwheels Children's Centre in Haverhill.

The centre, in Greenfields Way, provides pre-school care for up to 24 children a day, as well as breakfast and after-school clubs and a holiday club operating throughout the summer.

Work has recently been completed on the outside area and children can now enjoy "free flow play", with the same activities offered inside and outside the building.

Manager Sandra Bird said

coveralls were provided so the youngsters could still go outside, even if it was raining.

She said: "They have been out there in the pouring rain and they really love it. The garden area is really flourishing, the children have put in all the plants themselves. We have sunflowers, beans, tomatoes and cucumbers, and they really take pride in looking after them."

Mrs Bird thanked Fiona's Flowers for providing some plants for the garden. Some places are available for the holiday club for five-12 year-olds. Contact Sandra on (01440) 710655.

Answering fundraising challenge

PUPILS at a village school are doing their bit to find a use for old phones by joining a national campaign that could also win them prizes.

Pupils at Castle Camps School are taking part in the Fones4Schools campaign, which is the largest mobile phone collection and recycling campaign for nurseries, schools, colleges and youth organisations throughout the UK.

Every pupil that collects unused mobile phones is rewarded with a choice of more than 300 prizes, and the school receives unlimited donations of £300 for every 200 phones collected, no matter what the age or condition.

Cally Hill, the campaign's co-ordinator, said: "To date we have worked with over 6,000 schools and groups across the UK, who have raised over £1,000,000 in prizes and donations."

"The campaign has benefited a number of schools and youth organisations within the local area, and awareness of the campaign will provide more schools and groups with the opportunity to raise cash and prizes through a simple yet effective fundraising campaign."

Wedding bells in the air to help hall clear £3,000 debt

Town on list of licence dodgers

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

VILLAGERS have been handed a £3,000 power bill after their supplier informed them they had been under charging their hall for the past five years.

Residents of the tiny Essex village of Sturmer have already had to raise thousands of pounds to keep their hall open, and now they must launch yet another community appeal to raise additional funds to pay the electricity bill.

Power firm EON told the village hall committee that it had been invoicing it since 2003 using incorrect, estimated readings.

Committee member Ann Aken said: "Although we are disputing this cost, we need to work out a contingency plan to enable us to raise sufficient funds to cover the invoice."

Fundraising events will include hosting a wedding expo in March next year. The event, with local traders, will offer advice to prospective bride and groom.

Organisers are appealing to all relevant tradespeople and service providers to get involved in the "intimate event, rather than large commercial" event.

Mrs Aken said: "Organising a wedding can be very daunting, time consuming and stressful."

"How do you know what needs to be organised first and who the local reputable suppliers are? It could be a really nice community project if we can find the right people to participate."

Anyone interested in the event should contact Mrs Aken on (01440) 708063.

Riders rally to help wounded heroes

PEDAL power was on show in Haverhill last weekend when more than 40 volunteers took to the saddle in a sponsored static bike ride. They were aiming to raise up to £3,000 for a charity caring for wounded British soldiers.

Two static bikes were set up on the Market Square on Saturday. Town mayor Les Ager officially started the event, which continued non-stop until noon on Sunday. Local soldier Richard Mead, currently serving with the Royal Corps of Signals, organised the event with help from his sister Vicky.

She said: "It was absolutely brilliant, the support we got was quite overwhelming. People were coming up giving us £10 and £20 notes, telling us about their time in the Army or that they had sons and daughters serving in Iraq or Afghanistan. We raised £2,000 just from money given by people on the day alone.

"The rugby club came down and dressed up and went around the pubs for us. The leisure centre ran spinning classes for us and donated the money they would normally charge, some people did six classes running. I did two and a half hours and my behind is still killing me!" The cash raised will go to Help for Heroes, a charity that raises funds for rehabilitation care for wounded British soldiers. More information on the charity can be found at www.helpforheroes.org.uk

Funding to help woodlands grow

VOLUNTEERS are needed to help plant more trees for a community woodland project, which has just received £8,635 from the Big Lottery Fund.

Clare Nuttery is a two-acre community woodland owned by Clare Parish Council, and an action plan has been drawn up over the past 13 years to improve it.

Parish councillor Keith Mison said the money would be spent on creating a wooden sculpture at the entrance to the woodland, depicting the many uses of the hazel tree, from which the site gets its name. Safety fencing will be installed around the pond, new hedging materials purchased, and specialist machinery hired.

Clare Nuttery is open to the public all year round, and can be reached from the High Street in Clare. Two glades have been developed where people can sit and watch the wildlife, enjoy a picnic, or walk dogs.

Hundreds of trees have been planted by volunteers.

No bad dogs, just bad owners

Sir, My heart goes out to the pensioner whose little dog was mauled to death by the two rottweilers (OAP's plea to enforce dog law after pet is 'ripped apart' - Weekly News, July 17). I am sure her days on earth have been shortened by this tragedy. Her last days must be filled with sorrow and rage at the owners of the out-of-control dogs responsible.

I was a Kennel Club-registered breeder

SAM'S THE WORD

News from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College

AS DUSK sets on yet another year at Samuel Ward, students are still busy working up to that final moment of school before six weeks of vacation. Last week, however, saw moments of celebration and amusement for students. Last Wednesday, students of all years enjoyed on a sports day. This included traditional events on the track and field, such as the 100m sprint and the 1,200m long distance run, but there was something for everyone, such as the welly toss and 'tchuckball', providing students with a fun day out of the classroom and some friendly competition. James Batye, winner of the 400m and 100m relay, said: "It was a fun day, something for us and the teachers to enjoy." Rebecca Whitbread said: "It was really good fun and had something for everyone." But the festivities of the day didn't stop on the track - that evening was band night in the drama studio with an array of acts and talent performing to a gathering of parents and students.

Special homes to 'make life easier'

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

TWO specially-adapted homes designed to help families living with disabled children have been handed over at an affordable housing development in Haverhill.

Both families now living in the homes have helped design their shape and the internal lay-outs which best supports their needs.

One of the two homes is a specially-adapted three-bedroom flat and the other is a four-bedroom house, both with a unique lay-out and a wide range of features designed to improve the quality of life and access for families who are caring for disabled people.

The new homes are a result of close collaboration between the families with architects, developers, St Edmundsbury Borough Council, Suffolk County Council, Suffolk Housing Society and Icenii Homes.

Susan Benham has moved into one of the homes with her three children, including her 16-year-old son Darryl, who has profound disabilities.

The family home has been built with Darryl's needs in mind. There are garden ramps and a ground-floor extension of a fourth bedroom with en-suite bathroom and a hoist has been installed to run between the two rooms so Mrs Benham does not have to carry Darryl from room to room.

She said: "I was asked at every stage what our requirements were and my views were always taken into account."

"The final design of our house is exactly what Darryl needs. It is now very hard for me to physically lift a 16-year-old man between his bedroom and bathroom so the hoist is a huge improvement."

"We are very pleased with the design which will make our lives so much easier."

Ann Cousins, of the county council's children and young people's services, said: "Each of these homes has been carefully designed to take into account the individual needs of the families whom we knew in advance were going to be the tenants."

"But we also have been very careful to look to the longer-term future and everyone involved has worked hard to make sure these homes can be further adapted for future disabled tenants who may have different requirements."

The scheme received grant funding from the Housing Corporation of £1,080,000.

Policing issues on agenda for MP

WEST Suffolk MP Richard Spring has met Haverhill's new police sector commander, Inspector Andy Smith, for an update on policing in the town.

Mr Spring was briefed on policing issues affecting the town and outlying areas.

He said: "I like to keep in close contact with police officers in the constituency and to hear about any key issues affecting residents or about any particular problems or recurring incidents. I know from my interaction with the police throughout the region how much importance they attach to good community relationships and providing reassurance to residents."

Teacher's second day off, three decades on

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A TEACHER who has taken just one day off in 30 years is finally set to take a well earned rest.

Deputy headteacher John Knighton is the longest serving member of staff at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College in Haverhill, and was there when the school opened in 1978.

In that time he has only had one day off. But Lady Luck has been on his side – he broke his ankle playing after-school football with his colleagues on the last day of the summer term and the plaster was removed the day before the beginning of the next term in the autumn.

Howard Lay, headteacher at the Samuel Ward, described Mr Knighton as “one of the most outstanding teachers the school had ever had” and believed he had the greatest impact on the greatest number of students who passed through his classroom, estimated at 6,664.

In 1991 he became one of 10 finalists in the national maths teacher of the year award.

Mr Lay said it was hard to accept that Mr Knighton was retiring, as he had been such an integral part of the school since it opened.

However, he along with all the pupils, staff and governors, wished

■ GOODBYE . . . pupils farewell Samuel Ward deputy headteacher John Knighton, who is retiring after 30 years at the school. Picture: Richard Patterson 4

Mr Knighton a long and happy retirement.

He said: “He has been the foundation on which our school is built and it is hard to see how we will ever again remain so firmly anchored.

“It is this sense of purpose, stability and permanence that will be John's lasting legacy to the school. He personifies Samuel Ward more than any other member of staff, not because he is detached, flat-roofed and prefabricated but because the values he holds so strongly have infused the ethos, giving the school its strength and solidity.”

All steamed up for big weekend

STEAM lovers and country pursuits fans can enjoy plenty of treats at the annual Thurlow and Haverhill Steam Rally and Country Show, on August 2 and 3.

The event will take place at the Horseheath Point to Point course and will be dedicated to the memory of long-term organiser Don Loveday, who died last year.

Committee members Michael Pumfrey and father Robert have taken up the reins to keep the show going.

Michael said: “Don is a very hard act to follow because he used to do almost everything himself. The rest of the committee are all helping us and we are hoping for a good turn out.”

Star attractions this year include David Seamark and his sheepdogs on the Saturday and the Glen Moriston Pipe Band on the Sunday.

Around 25 full-sized engines are expected to be on show, as well as vans, tractors, models and miniatures, lorries and motorbikes. There will also be pleasure helicopter flights on offer all weekend, craft stalls, bygones, steam organs, a fun fair and a steam wood sawing demonstration.

The event usually raises a healthy profit for local charities and organisers are always pleased to hear from anyone interested in taking part or helping out on the day. Call Michael on (01799) 530246 or visit www.thurlowrally.com

Van raiders take drill

THIEVES smashed a window to get into a van and stole a drill from inside.

The theft happened at Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, between 10.30pm last Thursday and 4.30am the following morning when the blue Peugeot Expert van was broken into. Call Pc Matthew Dale at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100.

Practices open longer

MORE than half of all GP practices in the Suffolk Primary Care Trust (PCT) area are opening their doors longer for routine patient appointments.

They are open for up to an extra eight hours a week, with some seeing patients as early as 7am and many having restored Saturday morning surgeries.

GP practices currently have to be available from 8am to 6.30pm on Monday to Friday, but the Government wants to extend opening hours for routine appointments.

The longer opening hours have been introduced at 45 practices, including the Stourview Medical Centre in Haverhill and the Guildhall Surgery at Clare.

Melanie Craig, deputy director of performance at the trust, said GPs in the PCT area had responded positively to the initiative.

She said: “This is extremely good news for patients trying to juggle busy lives who sometimes find it difficult to get to their GP practice for a routine appointment between 8am and 6.30pm on weekdays.

“The practices themselves have responded to the needs of their patients.”

The Government has asked all PCTs to work towards ensuring that at least half the GP practices in their area are offering extended hours by 31 December.

Police to share security advice

NEIGHBOURHOOD Watch group members will be joining Haverhill police's Safer Neighbourhood Teams for a special meeting this week to help people keep their homes and property safe.

The event will take place at Haverhill Arts Centre from 10am to noon this Friday and is aimed at encouraging more Neighbourhood Watch groups to form and to give crime prevention advice.

CPSO Les Scott said advice leaflets would be given to members of the public.

They would also be reminded not to leave doors and windows open – even with windows locked as these can be forced by thieves – during warm weather.

Potter gives boys a hand with artwork

BY Jo Deeks

Email:
editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A GROUP of youngsters facing serious problems in life have worked together to leave a permanent mark on the children's home they live in by creating a colourful wall sculpture.

Local potter Fraser MacRae, who works as education centre co-ordinator at Broadlands Hall at Little Wratting, has spent several weeks working on the sculpture with five residents aged between 12 and 17.

Entitled Give Us A Hand, the artwork, which now hangs proudly in the dining room, includes the hand prints of its creators set in plaster, surrounded by their own personal decorations, including creatures such as newts and ladybirds they have found in the six acres of grounds surrounding the house and school where they live.

Mr MacRae, who lives in Steeple Bump-

■ ON DISPLAY ... the Give Us A Hand artwork, created by youngsters, now hanging at Broadlands Hall.

stead and has been a potter for 30 years, was invited by Colonel Boulter of Barnardiston Hall School, who also owns Broadlands, to start creating artwork with the youngsters.

Broadlands caters for boys in care who have a range of learning difficulties, such as autism, or behavioural problems. The wall sculpture was inspired by a visit to the Henry Moore Foundation and Mr MacRae said he was proud of their creation.

He said: "We hear so much bad press about young people with damage to bus shelters and knife crime. Here is an example of young people with so many difficulties in their lives, who with the right motivation, supervision and encouragement, have worked together to produce a really positive outcome."

Youngsters from Broadlands are starting to take part in courses such as carpentry and brick laying at West Suffolk College and one resident has gained a place at the catering college at Cambridge Regional College. Links are also being forged with Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College to encourage life skill course and integration into the local community.

Musical pair make finals

TWO young Haverhill musicians took part in the West Suffolk Young Musician of the Year Festival in Bury St Edmunds.

Ryan Morley, 11, and Tomos Morgan, 13, won their heats – preliminary and intermediate respectively – earlier in the year playing cornet and were then invited to take to the stage for the festival final.

Instrumentalists from all across the county performed solos of their choice.

Jane Wright, head of music at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College, accompanied the pair. Both are members of Haverhill Youth and Community Band. Ryan also plays for Hadstock Silver Band.

A third Haverhill musician, Lewis Tingey, a pupil at Samuel Ward, played violin, also in the preliminary section of the event.

Bid goes in for industrial units

PLANS to build three light industrial units with parking areas have been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

The units would be built following demolition of an existing building on land at the rear of FSM on the Sturmer End Industrial Estate in Haverhill.

Trees spring up to keep town blooming

COLOURFUL flower trees have sprung up in Haverhill's town centre thanks to the generosity of a local businessman – and there are plans to provide more.

Members of the Haverhill in Bloom committee met Christopher Gurteen, managing director of the long-standing Haverhill textile company, in Jubilee Walk to unveil a flower tree bearing five hanging baskets. It was provided with cash from a £500 donation Mr Gurteen made to the group to help brighten up the town centre. Another one has been erected in Crown Passage off the High Street and more are planned.

Valerie Morton, a member of the Haverhill in Bloom committee, said: "We are very grateful to Mr Gurteen. We are hoping that these will brighten up the town a bit and we hope to provide more, perhaps on the Market Square. They all need maintaining and we are hoping that we can attract some more sponsorship."

The group holds spring and autumn gardeners' markets in the town and has also done planting elsewhere in Haverhill. More activities are planned for the future and more members are needed to take them forward. Anyone interested in joining should contact Mrs Morton on (01440) 709099.

Five have drugs case adjourned

FIVE people accused of being part of a major drugs operation to supply cocaine to the south of England have appeared in Crown Court where their case was adjourned until November 14.

The five were arrested in a series of dawn raids across Cambridgeshire, Suffolk and north London two weeks ago, when weapons, drugs, including cocaine, cash and vehicles were seized.

Ryan Eggo, 21, of Church Close, Whittlesford; Matthew Dixon, 38, of Elmhurst Close, Haverhill; Paul French, 31, of Gannet Close, Haverhill; and Sean Kimber, 31, of Lime Kiln Close, Peterborough, were all remanded in custody.

Emma Limpus, 30, the mother of a 10-week-old baby, from Cleves Road, Haverhill, was granted conditional bail.

All five are accused of conspiring to supply Class A drugs. Limpus and French are also charged with supplying amphetamines.

■ A 23-year-old woman from Haverhill arrested on suspicion of conspiring to supply Class A drugs has been released on bail to return to Bury St Edmunds Police Station on Thursday, August 21.

A 43-year-old man and a 41-year-old man, both from Whittlesford, arrested on suspicion of money laundering have been released on police bail to return to Parkside Police Station in Cambridge on Tuesday, September 9.

Acquisition of Suffolk Service Centre

AN expanding vehicle repair and service centre has added yet another string to its bow by becoming a Motaquip supplier.

Suffolk Service Centre has been established in Haverhill for the past eight years and has now acquired Motaquip, formerly of Recreation Road, Haverhill, so that it is able to supply parts for any model of car from its premises in Sturmer Road.

Ray Oakley, Rob Steward and

Gary Standeven are the directors of the business, which also includes RG Cars and Stradishall Service Station under its umbrella. Motaquip is the French equivalent of Unipart and the business will stock spare parts for all models cars. Batteries, exhausts, tyre and steering systems are also part of their expertise.

Five skilled mechanics are on hand, using the latest diagnostic equipment, scanners and computerised wheel alignment in their work. Mr Oakley said he believed the new addition to their facilities would mean they had more to offer their customers.

He said: "We can offer more and the supplies are in house. Anything we have not got in stock we can normally get on the same day."

Schools on song for big show

A CELEBRATION of the musical talents of local pupils returned this year with the Haverhill Schools Music Festival taking to the stage at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College. Even more schools were involved this year, with performances from Clements, Thurlow, Kedington, Hundon, Place Farm, St Felix Primary Schools, Castle Hill and Parkway Middle schools, as well as Castle Manor itself.

The festival saw many musical activities take place before a day's workshop and final evening concert at Castle Manor.

The concert began with the theme from Pirates of the Caribbean being performed by a combined orchestra of pupils from Castle Hill, Parkway and Castle Manor. There were also many performances by primary schools on string and brass instruments.

Castle Manor was represented by Nice Manors, who will be touring in Italy next Easter. Performers contributing to the concert ranged from an award-winning recorder group from Kedington, to pop and rock groups, through to orchestras.

Castle Manor's main hall was full to capacity with well over 400 audience members enjoying the show.

The organisers are now bidding for money to further the work of the festival with instruments and workshops.

Tony Meallings, music advisor for Suffolk County Council, said: "It was gratifying to see such a high standard being achieved, often as a result of the partnership between the school-based and Suffolk County music service staff."

Team wins annual car rally again

DESPITE a very wet and grey evening, eight teams rose to the challenge of the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce and Industry's annual car rally.

Paul Cammiss, of Adams Harrison solicitors, was the brains behind the questions, which participants had to answer to stay on route.

The teams started out from Clare's Market Square and finished 11 miles away in Great Yeldham.

FlipFlop Marketing, which also came first in the 2007 rally, won this year's top prize, narrowly beating The Design Office, which came in second place one point behind. Sarand Business Software retained their third place position.

Sarah Howard, the new chairman of the Haverhill Chamber said: "This is a great social event for the chamber."

"I think it is a testament to Paul Cammiss that so many people turned up on such a miserable evening."

"The questions did seem a little more challenging this year but everyone tries so hard. The FlipFlop Marketing team are very competitive and just won't give up in their quest for the answers."

She added: "We are looking forward to putting together an exciting programme of events for the chamber, starting again in September."

Kedington

The monthly meeting of the parish council was held at the library last Tuesday, with the vice-chairman Cllr Terry Wheeler presiding and welcoming members attending, plus borough councillor Marion Rushbrook and Shaun Jarvis, of the Wildlife Group. Apologies were received from the chairman Cllr J. Chaill and Cllr G. Double on health grounds, and county councillor, The Reverend Karen Knight.

In the opening meeting preceding the business, library manager Jane Helliwell informed the meeting of her impending retirement after 11 and a half years and voiced thanks to the parish council for the help and support received from the council, in particular during the spate of vandalism that had occurred mainly last year. In her remarks, Jane said she considered Kedington a lovely village in which she had made many friends. Minutes of Jane's meeting were agreed as a true record. Cllr Rushbrook reported on the controversial proposed county boundary changes for Suffolk and Norfolk which were being widely objected to. A lengthy document on the proposed changes was passed on to the clerk, Marion Farrant, who will have them copied and circulated to councillors to study at their leisure. In her report, the clerk highlighted the dangers of children using short cuts to school and advised of an accident on June 27 when a child was nearly knocked down by a car when taking a shortcut through a hedge. The crossing supervisor's job is to see children safely across the designated crossing and they cannot be responsible for children taking shortcuts. The school's headteacher has been informed and will warn the children of the dangers of taking shortcuts.

A meeting of the finance committee, chaired by Cllr Wheeler, owing to the absence of the chairman and also of Cllr Gloria Double, was held on July 8. The internal auditor report was received and discussed and a parish council risk assessment needs to be completed. It was proposed that Cllr Peter Rowell be asked to carry this out. The parish financial statement was agreed as satisfactory, but the St Edmundsbury Borough Council is to be queried on the cost of emptying dog and litter bins, which was significantly higher compared to the previous quarter.

A letter of thanks for support had been received from the primary school. A letter from the borough council regarding the removal of village phone boxes indicated that it was proposed to remove two from the village at Sturmer Road and Dash End, with the possibility of retaining the one in Kings Hill, close to the Barnardiston Arms, but consultations were still ongoing.

Contracts for grass cutting at various locations in the village were discussed and contracts considered. Consultations in respect of the new parish office being installed at the community centre are still ongoing.

On planning matters, it was questioned whether planning permission had been granted for a large mobile home in the garden of 18 Mill Road. This is to be investigated.

Speeding cars and cars parking too close to road junctions were still causing problems in the village.

The council does not meet in August and the next meeting will be on Tuesday, September 16.

■ In association with Team Read, the summer reading challenge organised by Suffolk libraries, a teddy bears picnic will be held at Kedington Library on Thursday, August 7 from 1-3pm.

Bring a picnic lunch and join in the games and stories. The event will also provide an opportunity to bid a warm farewell to librarian Jane Helliwell, who is retiring after 11 and a half years as manager of Kedington Library.

■ The July meeting of the Women's Institute took the form of a garden meeting at the home of a member Beryl Bracken.

Members enjoyed a good evening in the lovely garden by the river, and took part in games of croquet and lawn darts. There was also a quiz to tax the members' brains and many took the opportunity to have a good chat. As usual, the refreshments were varied and delicious and a lovely Pimms-type drink added to the occasion.

■ Following a very wet outlook on Saturday morning, the weather improved to produce sunny afternoon for the annual primary school fair, which proved very successful and is expected to have raised some £1,000 for the Parent, Teachers and Friends Association. Headmaster Darren Woodward welcomed and thanked all for their support, as well as presenting prizes at the conclusion of the two-hour event.

■ A very successful sell-out social evening with barbecue, organised by the Royal British Legion Society committee, was at the Legion Hall on Friday evening. Excellent entertainment with music and song was provided by the local duo, Memory Lane.

An excellent barbecue was organised by Ashley Smith and members of the social committee, and the bar was organised by branch treasurer Bob Wyatt. A warm welcome to all was voiced by the secretary Brian Tyrrell, plus thanks to all who had helped organise the evening.

Good wishes were expressed to Derrick Reed who had previously organised the barbecue but was now prevented from doing so by ill health. He is wished a speedy and full recovery. Sausages for the evenings barbecue were again kindly donated by Grampian Foods. A raffle with numerous prizes, all donated, was organised by Vi Wyatt and Sheila May of the women's section.

The event provided an appropriate opportunity of presenting a signed certificate of appreciation to a member who had given good service to the branch in various capacities over the years, including standard bearer and the refurbishment of the legion hall.

The member named for the award was Edward (Ted) Mayes, who was thanked for his service to the branch by chairman Fred Phillips and was presented with the certificate by branch president Leslie Parkin.

Top honour for new president

PHARMACIST Malcom Smith has taken over the presidency of Haverhill and District Rotary Club from John Senior.

John has had a busy and enjoyable year at the helm, culminating in the recent successful Haverhill Charity Golf Classic, a joint event organised in conjunction with the Haverhill Golf Club which raised more than £10,000.

Malcom said: "I am honoured and privileged to be the president of the Haverhill and District Rotary Club for the next year.

"The principle of Rotary everywhere is 'service above self' and I hope that the club can continue to serve and help our local community groups and individuals to achieve their aims."

Big prizes for show winners

PLENTY of prizes were handed out at the recent Haverhill Show, where the fun carried on despite the rain.

Only six less babies were entered in the Baby Show than the previous year, and judges Katrina Morris, Janet Brennan and Lin Tedham had a hard job picking out the winners.

Overall winner was Florence Cummins, who was also first in the birth to six months class, with Alex Calver second and Ellice Hoddinott third.

Other results were: six months to one year – 1. Kaci Rice; 2. Emily Lupton; 3. Amelia Silvain. One year 18 months – 1. Ruby Burns; 2. Maddie Richardson; 3. Demi Leigh; Eighteen months to two years – 1. Alec Bell; 2. Joe Carver; 3. Kearna Print.

Dog Show winners were: best in show – Louie the Cocker Spaniel, from Haverhill; runner-up – Sapphire the Great Dane from Clare.

Steve Woods won the bicycle donated by Chapmans, Michele Hammond collected £58 in the main £1 bucket and Gracie Mai won £21.50 in the baby bucket. Ann Goodchild won the knobbly knees competition.

Samuels estate agents sponsored the Baby Show and Cheffins the Dog Show. Other sponsors included Essex Shoe Repair, Cuts Unlimited, TV Allstar, Blooming Lovely, Party Krazy, Diva, Glasswells and The Gallery.

to return home.

The poster was the brainchild of the Central Babergh Safer Neighbourhood Team's Sergeant Simon Hobson, and is supported by Hadleigh Neighbourhood Inspector Rupert Weeks.

He said: "We are keen to promote awareness amongst parents about their youngsters' whereabouts as the summer holidays approach.

"While we enjoy relatively low levels of anti-social behaviour, we recognise that the summer holidays can be a time when children and young persons can behave out of character.

"All we are asking in this poster is that parents take the time to find out where their children are going to be, especially during the summer evenings.

"Whilst we want all children to thoroughly enjoy their summer break, we believe it can be easy for youngsters to become involved in minor crime and anti-social behaviour without some rules being imposed by parents.

"A mental note by parents of where their children are going to be and when they are returning home could be enough to prevent that child or young person becoming unnecessarily involved in crime and disorder."

Feel the rhythm at summer school art sessions

THERE'S still time to see the archaeologist adventurer Indiana Jones in Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull (12A) at the Haverhill Arts Centre.

Twenty five years after Indiana Jones and The Raiders of The Lost Ark graced our screens, the hero returns with an all-star cast in this blockbuster. There are screenings on this Friday, and next Monday and Wednesday at various times.

■ Nim's Island (U) tells the story of a young girl who lives on a beautiful island with her research scientist father. But she is left to fend for herself after he goes missing. When tour companies move in on the secluded paradise she realises she needs help and begins to email the author of her favourite stories about Alex Rover, who soon gives her inspiration. It's on this Friday at 11am.

■ Tim Flint – not just an organist but also an entertainer, a musician and a showman – will appear at the arts centre next Tuesday. As a player he can turn his playing to almost any style: classical, orchestral, jazz, big band, theatre organ, electronic organ, jazz organ, piano, Latin American and other modern styles. Come along for a 7.30pm start.

■ In association with DanceEast, Summer Garden Adventure, a two-day workshop with dancer Rhonda Sparrey and artist Elisabeth Rutt, will take place on Thursday, July 31 and Friday, August 1 from 10am to 3pm. Suitable for youngsters aged six to nine, this exciting summer school will combine dance with art to explore hidden adventures of the summer garden.

If your children are a bit older there is a three-day Drum 'n' Dance summer school for 10 to 14-year-olds. Children will learn how to combine the arts of drumming and dance with dancer Holly Stubbings and drummer Mark Trewartha on Monday, August 4 to Wednesday, August 6 from 10am to 3pm.

These two summer workshops are always popular. All that's needed is a packed lunch and loose, comfortable clothing.

UB40 regroup for tour

By Nik Shelton

UB40's recent invasion of the headlines has proved to be one of the most bizarre and fascinating rock and roll stories of recent years.

When lead singer Ali Campbell stormed out of the UK reggae hitmakers earlier this year, telling the press he was "deeply unhappy" about the business dealings of the group, rumours about the band started to fly. And it all became even more fascinating when guitarist Robin Campbell sided with the group against his brother.

Despite initial reports that reggae legend Maxi Priest was set to take over vocal duties, the band instead announced that a third Campbell brother, Duncan, was to step into the breach.

The band's keyboardist Mickey Virtue left soon afterwards and at the same time the group released their new album, Twenty Four Seven, and launched a major world tour, which sees them performing at Newmarket Racecourse this

■ KEEPING IT TOGETHER... a third Campbell brother, Duncan has stepped in to fill the shoes of sibling Ali, who quit UB40 earlier this year.

Friday before heading off to play a series of festivals and arenas in the US.

So, all in all, it's been a busy few months for the band.

"Well we've got a new singer and a new keyboard player so there's lots of rehearsals going on," Robin says in the Brummie twang which is still as strong as ever.

"Life goes on. The manner in which Ali left was upsetting but we will carry on. He's not spoken to either me or Duncan. There's too much going on at the moment, he's doing his own thing and we're very busy but I think he's probably as wounded as we are."

The band have always been famous for having a pair of brothers in the line-up, and with the arrival of Duncan, that won't change. Thank goodness then that the Campbells come from a very musical family, due in large part to the early encouragement from their father, the Scottish folk singer Ian Campbell.

"When Ali left I immediately went round and saw Duncan, who sounds very similar to Ali actually, and he jumped at the chance.

"We did ask him to join the band 30 years ago when we first started, the idea was the three of us would be vocalists because we had been singing together all our lives.

"But he turned us down saying it would never amount to anything and has spent the last 30 years regretting it."

'Uncanny' spirits come back to life

SPIRITS is a new photography exhibition at the Museum of Zoology in Cambridge, which runs until August 29.

Photographer Alexandra Murphy has worked with the museum's collection of animal exhibits and has embedded the images in resin.

"I wanted to present the photographs in a way that would make them seem part of some zoologist's collection - captured specimens on exhibit that attract both feelings of fascination and unease," she says.

"Spirits is part of a long-term project, which visually explores various aspects of what psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud terms 'the uncanny'. It expresses the tension between the familiar and the frightening and also investigates the fear of lifeless objects coming to life."

Murphy has been a photographer for 22 years and also works with video. She lives in Cambridge where she is a part time lecturer in photography.

The museum, on Downing Street, is open from Monday to Friday 10am-4.45pm and Saturday 10am-1pm.

Four bedroom village home

Cheffins are pleased to offer this very well proportioned, immaculately presented individual detached residence on a lovely semi-rural lane with fine views and generous gardens at a guide price of £439,950.

The Meadows is a deceptively substantial family property, with four generous double bedrooms and is situated just away from the main village on Little Thurlow Green. It enjoys beautiful views over open farmland to both front and rear and has an extensive south-facing rear garden. The property has been refurbished by the current owners within the last five years, most notably with a fully-equipped, modern, kitchen / dining room and modern four-piece bathroom suite. On the ground floor are two spacious reception rooms, a ground floor cloakroom and a utility room. In the garden is a brick-built workshop with pitched roof, power and light connected, suitable for various uses. This sits within the extensive rear garden, with the total plot measuring approximately one quarter of an acre. Planning consent exists for the addition of an oversize garage to the side of the property and to provide an in-and-out driveway.

Poll shows house prices don't worry the young

A NATIONAL poll released this week has revealed that nearly a third (29 per cent) of the UK's over-65s view the threat of falling house values as their primary home-related concern, compared to just one in 10 (9 per cent) across all age groups.

The research, carried out by ethical home insurance company Congregational & General, sought to reveal people's attitudes to their homes and moving.

Figures amongst the under-65s were noticeably lower with only 6 per cent of 18 to 24-year-olds and 9 per cent of 25 to 34-year-olds – typically of first time and second-time buyer age – viewing house values as their top concern.

Even amongst 55 to 64-year-olds (13 per cent) the figure was more than doubled by the over-65s.

Margaret Slater, Congregational's marketing manager, said: "Considering that most over-65s are mortgage free and less likely to move, it is really surprising that so many older people state falling house values as their primary concern."

Further to this, in other areas of the survey, it emerged that 45 per cent would like to be friends with their neighbours, while 13 per cent stated that it is "essential we make friends".

Asked about how long they felt it took to make their new property feel homely, the majority (34 per cent) said up to three months, including 14 per cent who said they were comfortable, settled and were ready to call the place home the minute they moved in.

Three-bed in secluded spot

THIS property in Abbots Road, Haverhill, has a guide price of £169,950 and has been extended to include spacious accommodation.

There are three bedrooms, a living room, dining room, family room, kitchen and two bath/shower rooms.

The property stands back from the road behind a lawned front garden. The driveway provides plenty of off-road parking and there is a garage additionally.

To the rear is another lawn with attractive shrub borders.

There is also a patio area and ornamental fish pond.

Viewings are by appointment with the agent, Cheffins.

BlueMotion is the new green

ANOTHER day and another news story about rising fuel prices. Thank goodness then, for Volkswagen's range of BlueMotion cars which represent the most efficient model in each of the company's passenger car ranges.

The Polo was the first of VW's cars to get the BlueMotion badge, but the Golf followed soon afterwards and there'll be at least nine members joining Volkswagen's BlueMotion brigade by the end of the year. Each BlueMotion vehicle benefits from revised aerodynamics, optimised gear ratios, a new turbocharger and hard compound tyres. The driver, meanwhile, benefits from a car with greater fuel efficiency and lower CO2 emissions.

Don't be fooled into thinking that a BlueMotion model means a stripped-out, under-powered, no-thrills vehicle. When it comes to the Golf, the revisions have been made to the already decently specified and well-built S and Match models, which means the changes don't come at the cost of comfort. Nor do its new green credentials come at the cost of style. In fact, the exterior of the Golf BlueMotion is virtually identical to that of the standard car, except for the badging and a slightly lowered suspension, dropped to aid aerodynamic efficiency. There is an audible clue when you start the engine which is loud and clattery although not unduly unpleasant or harsh. There's a lack of low-down response, which means that third gear is often the best option for city driving but on the motorways, the Golf is a smooth and relaxed cruiser. The driving style is easy enough to adapt to and the tall gears pose no difficulties in city traffic or at speed on the highways.

There are few issues with ride and handling. The lowered suspension and high profile tyres make for a firm but not uncomfortable ride and the Golf corners with only a touch less steering accuracy and grip than the standard model. Its top speed of 116mph matches that of its non-BlueMotion equivalent and there are no time penalties in the 0-62mph run either, which is completed in 11.3 seconds. However, unlike its standard stablemate, it offers substantial savings with regards to fuel consumption, returning an additional 6.3mpg and a reduction of 13g/km in CO2 emissions, from 132g/km to 119g/km.

BASICALLY...

The Golf BlueMotion's main weakness is its noisy engine, but that's a small price to pay considering how much there is to gain.

Essential kit for EU driving

IF you are driving through France in the next few weeks and fail to carry a fluoro-scent safety vest in your vehicle you'll receive a hefty £100 on-the-spot fine – the new law came in to force on July 1.

According to an online survey from Mail Order specialists, Car Parts Direct, 76 per cent of British motorists who intend to travel this summer had no knowledge of the law. Additional hefty fines also apply for not having a GB sticker, warning triangle or a d l a m p defectors. Other countries have more rules, such as compulsory fire extinguishers and the requirement to carry a first aid kit. Car Parts Direct offers a European Travel Kit costs £69 plus P&P. To order, go to www.carparts-direct.co.uk or call 0871 918 1800.

travelling to any European country.

The kit includes a warning triangle, spare bulb and fuse kit, yellow jacket, first aid kit, fire extin-guisher, a headlamp deflector kit a GB sticker and a tyre fix aerosol, all supplied in a compact, velcro-backed carry case. The European Travel Kit costs £69 plus P&P. To order, go to www.carparts-direct.co.uk or call 0871 918 1800.

All-new Seat Ibiza is on sale

TEMPERATURES are set to soar following the arrival of an absolute scorcher from Spain – the all-new Seat Ibiza 5-door.

The supermini went on sale at Marshall Seat in Newmarket Road on Wednesday.

"Fabulous," was how Marshall Seat franchise manager described the newcomer.

Sizzling prices start from £8,995 for the 1.2 68bhp version, with the 1.4-litre (83bhp) and 1.6-litre 102bhp petrol versions now in the showroom.

The SportCoupe/three-door version is due later this year, with the diesel range launched early in 2009.

■ IT'S HERE... the new five-door Ibiza.

For a closer look at the all-new Seat Ibiza, and to arrange a test drive, call Marshall Seat on (01223)

377550. You could also enquire about the classic Ibiza Ecomotive, which has an astonishing extra-urban figure of 88.7mpg, and the Leon and Alhambra Ecomotive models, both equally frugal.

HIGHWAYS AGENCY

LAND COMPENSATION ACT 1973 (AS AMENDED) A428 CAXTON COMMON TO HARDWICK IMPROVEMENT

1. THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR TRANSPORT HEREBY GIVES NOTICE THAT the new length of highway described in the Schedule below was first open to public traffic on 24th May 2007. That date is known as the "relevant date".
2. Under Part I of the Land Compensation Act 1973 (as amended) (from now on referred to as the Act), compensation can be claimed by anyone having a qualifying interest in land (see paragraphs 7 and 8 to this notice) if the value of that interest has been depreciated by more than £50 by physical factors caused by the use of the new highway. The physical factors are noise, vibration, smell, fumes, smoke and artificial lighting and the discharge on to the land of any solid or liquid substance.
3. The first day on which compensation can be claimed is the day after twelve months have expired from the relevant date and is known as the "first claim day". The first claim day for this new highway was 25th May 2008.
4. Anyone who, after the first claim day, intends to sell his/her interest in the property or, in the case of properties that are not dwellings, to grant a tenancy, must make a claim before a contract to sell or grant a lease is made. The Secretary of State cannot accept a claim after a contract to sell or grant a lease has been made.
5. By virtue of section 19(2A) of the Act and under the Limitations Act 1980, a claim will become time-barred if within six years from and including the first claim day the claimant has not:
 - a. Agreed in writing an offer of compensation (including any reasonable valuation and legal expenses) made by the Secretary of State in writing; or
 - b. If agreement is not so reached, made a reference to the Lands Tribunal to have it determine the compensation.

Where a claim has become time-barred under the Limitations Act 1980, the Secretary of State can no longer be required to pay compensation.

No compensation can be claimed under Part I of the Act where part of the property was acquired for the construction of the new highway. Instead, compensation for land acquired is paid under different rules.

To claim compensation under Part I of the Act, a qualifying interest in the land must have been acquired before the new highway was first open to public traffic. The qualifying interest must also be held by the claimant at the date of making a claim. The claimant must be able to produce evidence of his/her interest in the property when required to do so by the Secretary of State. Compensation will not be paid where a claimant's qualifying interest in the property cannot be verified.

Interests in land qualifying for compensation are specified in section 2 of the Act. They are:

- a. For dwellings, the interest must be that of an owner by virtue of owning the freehold or a tenancy with at least three years left to run at the time of making the claim. Where the interest carries the right to occupy the property, the claimant must do so as his residence.
 - b. For agricultural units, the interest must be that of an owner-occupier, that is, a person who occupies the whole of the unit and owns the freehold or a tenancy with at least three years left to run at the time of making the claim in the whole or any part of the unit.
 - c. For other property that is not a dwelling or an agricultural unit, the interest must be that of an owner-occupier, that is, a person who occupies the whole or substantial part of the property by virtue of owning the freehold or a tenancy with at least three years left to run at the time of making the claim. The property must have an annual value that does not exceed £24,600 (this figure may be updated by Order from time to time).
9. Special provisions under the Act apply to claims where the land is subject to a mortgage, where there are persons entitled under trusts or settlements or by inheritance and where there are tenants entitled to enfranchisement or extension under the Leasehold Reform Act 1967.
 10. Compensation is assessed by reference to property prices that are current on the first claim day. Account will be taken of the use of the new highway, as it exists on the first claim day. Account will also be taken of any intensification that may then reasonably be expected of the use of the new highway in the state it is on the first claim day.
 11. Anyone having a qualifying interest who considers they have a claim under the Act can obtain further information and a claim form from Highways Agency, Lands Delivery and Support Division, Woodlands, Manton Lane, MK41 7LW or by telephoning 0845 3002331.
 12. This notice contains a summary of the law. It is not intended to be a complete and full statement of it. Anyone intending to make a claim should consider obtaining independent professional advice.

SWIMMING

Steffi's marathon victory delights coach Bircher

HAVERHILL swimmer Alan Bircher's new venture into coaching again reaped dividends when his girlfriend Stefanie Biller triumphed at a top event over the weekend. Trained by Bircher, Biller took 6hr 23min as she won the 30km Ohrid Swimming Marathon in the Macedonia World Cup on Saturday.

Biller's performance saw her finish comfortably ahead of second-placed Esther Nunez, of Spain, with Shelley Clarke, of Australia, third.

Biller was up with the top male swimmers for more than six hours of the race and it was only in the final kilometre when that first five men broke away from her.

Bircher said: "This was a tremendous swim by Steffi. It was one of the most important races of the series for her as it gave her a good chance to close the gap on the overall leaderboard."

Biller is now in third place overall, but looking good to gain a second-place finish.

The weather for the race saw an air temperature of 33-35C and the water was 23-25C.

It was very slow from the start and, with the air being hot, nobody wanted to take the race on. Therefore, it was always going to be a battle to see who could hold up best in the conditions. Biller broke away from her closest female opponent with six kilometres to go. From then on, she was left to extend her lead. Biller's next two races are in Canada with the first taking place on Saturday in Lac St Jean. The conditions will be cold water and a tough race is expected, which will suit Biller, who seems to thrive in colder conditions.

CRICKET: ADAMS HARRISON MIDWEEK LEAGUE

Horseheath in twin assault on silverware

HORSEHEATH and Babraham are fighting it out for the major league honours. The two teams will be contesting the A H Cup at Haverhill in a repeat of last season's final.

It is also now between them for the league title, following Abington's loss at Horseheath.

In their cup semi-final, Horseheath batted first and made 154 for 7 off their 20 overs with Gary Ellis making 57 before snapping up 4 for 21 as Helions Bumpstead were limited to 130 for 7. Andy Rose top-scored on 39.

Babraham booked their place in the final with a comfortable win over Sawston.

Jon Woodgate (67), Chris Palmer (27no) and Dan Archer (26no) helped Babraham to 150 for 3, despite good bowling for Andy Palmer (3 for 29). Adam Ellis (44) led the way in Sawston's reply of 118 for 9.

Meanwhile, in Division One, Horseheath won comfortably to end Abington's hopes of the title and keep their very much alive.

Knocks of 37 from Dan Goldsmith and an unbeaten 32 from Ellis powered Horseheath to 130 for 4 after Abington were dismissed for 127 (Simon Bishop 69).

Stuart Morrison with 4 for 15

■ HALF CENTURY... Gary Ellis made 57 for Horseheath.

kept Babraham's hopes of retaining the title alive and left Haverhill in danger at the wrong end of the table. Haverhill ended on 108 for 8 in reply to their opponents' 116 for 6.

Weston Colville won a close match against Helions Bumpstead with a ball to spare to virtually secure their Division One status and keep Helions in big trouble.

Trevor Westley (72), Mark Nunn (40) and Neil Winter (28no) saw Weston to a threewicket triumph after Helions had opened with 133 for 5. Helions' Chris Raynor took 3 for 31.

Division Two looks between Long Melford and Sawston, while Thurlow are relegated.

Long Melford remained on course for a return to the top division with a last over win over Brockley.

There were very big scores from both sides as Gestingthorpe hung on to win a thriller against Ashdon.

David Phelps (87 no) and Alec Pyman (69) starred for Gestingthorpe in 197 for 5.

Michael Furze (46), Will Mallett (53) and Mark Noakes (39) were the backbone of Ashdon's response of 190 for 7. Ashley Baker 3 for 24 for Gestingthorpe.

Other results:

Division 3A: Great Yeldham 98-0 (Nick Wright 26no Paul Brazier 26no); Hurdon 97-7 (Adrian Baker 3-24).

Gestingthorpe II 85-5 (Tim Stovell 30, Ben Hyett 4-26); Hurdon 89-2 (Steff Marks 25).

Wrattling Lions 78 (Russell Davis 25, Aaron Walters 4-24); Highpoint 79-2 (Rob Walsh 42no).

Division 3B: Weston Colville II 74 (Andy Argent 3-13, Will Brown 5-7); Mill Green 75-5.

Abington II 105-6 (Jimmy Lawrence 27, Jamie Ketteridge 25no, Neil Mortimer 3-14); Castle Manor 101-8 (Chris Malins 5-17).

League Cup, semi-final: Wrattling Lions 56-7 (S Bowes 27), Ashdon 58-3.

SKIING

Alessia proves No 1 on the slopes

ALESSIA Thomas-Jackson has become the Snowsport England Grand Prix women's series leader after finishing runner-up in the latest round at Ipswich.

The Haverhill skier was second to Charlotte Evans, but a poor first run from pre-race series leader Rachel Adcock saw Thomas-Jackson leap to the top of the standings.

Her performance also led to victory in the junior 1 race with just one event to go in the series at Rossendale next month.

Haverhill fumble their way to defeat

HAVERHILL'S hopes of promotion from Division Two of the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship took a severe dent when they lost by 56 runs at new leaders Mistley on Saturday.

Five dropped catches and a late two-over spell that saw Mistley score 47 runs allowed them to reach 226 for 3.

Haverhill were in early trouble as they slumped to 37 for 6.

They were steadied by some solid batting from Martyn Wilkins (54 not out) and Dan Wilkins (37).

But, ultimately, their efforts were all in vain as Haverhill could reach only 170 for 8 at the end of their overs.

■ WESTON COLVILLE went down by five wickets when they entertained Fordham in Division Two of the Tucker

Gardner Cambs and Hunts Premier League on Saturday.

The hosts batted first with Adam Curtis smacking the top score of 48 and captain Adie Westley and Arvid Gunderson both making 30 as they were dismissed for 175.

Gavin Harding was Fordham's best bowler, taking three scalps.

Harding then hit 62 and Ian Baldwin 31 as the visitors eased past their target with 178 for 5.

■ HORSEHEATH batsman Dan Goldsmith cracked an undefeated half-century in his team's emphatic nine-wicket Cheffins CCA Senior League, Division One success at home to Barrington.

Robbie Ketteridge grabbed 4 for 31 and Martin Giles 3 for 16 to dismiss an under-strength Barrington for just 84.

Goldsmith struck 53 not out, with fellow opener Alan Ketteridge falling for 23 when the hosts were just one run short of victory, Horseheath finishing with 85 for 1.

Horseheath captain Gary Ellis said: "There wasn't a lot wrong with the wicket, but the wind was blowing one way and they just kept trying to hit it into the wind and it was holding up."

His Barrington opposite number Ian Hopwood said: "It was a bit of a disaster, but we're very inconsistent at the moment."

■ IN THE RUNS... Adam Curtis, who top score of 48 for Weston Colville against Fordham, on Saturday.

FOOTBALL

Rovers back in swing

HAVERHILL Rovers continue their pre-season friendly action with a match against Halstead Town at Hamlet Croft on Saturday.

They continue the build-up to the new Ridgions League, Premier Division campaign the following Saturday with a trip to Brantham Athletic and round things off by entertaining Stowupland Falcons on the evening of Tuesday, August 5. Rovers commence their league fixtures with a visit to last season's runners-up Needham Market on Saturday, August 9, before Mildenhall Town visit the following Tuesday.

Haverhill, under new manager Larry Billings, have been looking to bring in more local talent during the close season, but one familiar face definitely on board is midfielder Mark Abbs.

The 26 year old was with Rovers last season but left without playing a game because of a serious injury. Abbs had been a target for former Rovers boss Steve Taylor, who is now in charge of Wisbech Town. However, he turned down the chance to link up with former Rovers players Nick Impey and Jamie Thurlbourne at the Fenmen in favour of signing on at Hamlet Croft.

Billings said recently: "We have a good size squad and I'd like to think after the friendlies we'll be ready for the start of the league season."

The manager is looking to not only keep Rovers in the Premier Division, but improve on last term's final position of 10th.

"Ninth would be the aim as it is an improvement on last season," he said.

"I think with the quality we have, we can carry ourselves well."

GOLF ROUND-UP

FIFTEEN brave souls left the first tee at Coupals Road, competing in Haverhill Golf Club's Mid-Week Medal.

There was a danger at one stage that the inclement weather would force abandonment of play, but as the rain eased late in the day all the greens remained in play.

Dave Whiting took the low section and Stuart King and improving junior, Harvey Bavester the mid and high divisions.

Results - Division One: D Whiting 66, T Marsh 67, G Carroll 68, D Whelan 69, A Craig 70, T Lyons 75.

Division Two: S King 69, S Spittle 74.

Division Three: H Bavester 64, M Grove 67, R Spittle 73, P Owen 77, T Broomfield 78.

■ Besides their normal Monday morning series of matches Haverhill's seniors had a busy week with the men taking on the ladies a day later in their annual Alfa Romeo Shield challenge match.

Gallantry certainly was not on the males' agenda this time round as they romped home, recording a 15-3 success in a series of singles games.

Girton seniors were entertained for a four-ball, better-ball match.

Haverhill were not quite as clinical as they had been against the ladies, but still won by a 4½-3½ margin.

The main event on the seniors' agenda was the quarter-final match against St Clements in the Parks Trophy which is a county inter-club competition.

There were yet further changes to be made by captain Jim Walker to his playing line-up as several returned from holiday to face the Ipswich club.

Lead pair Malcolm Klinge and Gordon Price set the ball in motion with their 1 up win over J Fuller and B Sutton as Haverhill eased home to a 12-hole victory.

Overall scores (Haverhill names first): Price/Klinge 1 up v Fuller/Sutton, Walker/Cohen 5 up v Harper/Goodwin, Harkness/Kennedy 2 down v Bassingthwaite/Dickinson, Bareham/Briggs 8 up v Richards/Seggar.
